Towards Convergence

APEX goes after the discovery of contribution. Leaders in the mid-game begin to ask a whole different set of questions. What should I be focusing on? What's my grid for saying "no" and "yes" to the options before me? Of all the things I could do, what should I do? How do I get ready for the end-game?

APEX focuses on 3 more strategic questions to help leaders develop a decision making grid and gain greater focus that helps clarify their unique and ultimate Kingdom contribution.

APEX

- 01 ONLY 1 in 3 leaders finish well. Everyone should finish well but we lose most in the mid-game.
- 02 What got you here won't get you there. Leaders needs a series of paradigm shifts in order to finish well.
- 03 This is for leaders in their late 30s-50s seeking personal clarity, and/or those in transition needing insight into what's
